“Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells within you?”

1 Corinthians 3:16

Simply remembering that we are “temples of the Holy Spirit” should make our daily decision making relatively easy. If we truly want to imitate Jesus, then our words and actions should reflect the love, mercy, and forgiveness that flow from His Sacred Heart. Try it for one week. Try to remember that we are temples of the Holy Spirit and see how it affects the way that you live.

Our Love and Prayers go out to...

We want to hold one another in prayer, especially Marsha Cerar and all those who struggle with illness and those who have asked for our prayers. “May you touch them and heal them, O Lord!”

VICTIM ASSISTANCE If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at (218) 281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

Demonstrate your thankfulness this season

Each holiday season, St. Elizabeth's anticipates and relies on a seasonal increase in contributions. It is through the donations of every individual and family in the congregation that we are able to carry on our work now and throughout the year. If you need a convenient way to make recurring contributions or plan to make an additional gift before the end of the year, we encourage you to check out our electronic giving options. As the pace of life speeds up around the holidays, you may find electronic giving a most welcome way to make contributions. To set up a recurring giving schedule, visit us online at stlizdilworth.org and locate the Online Giving button. Or if it's easier, complete a paper authorization form and return it to the church office. Thank you for your generosity and support!

During the Month of All Souls (November), many parishes have the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which community members and visitors write the names of their beloved dead. The Book of Remembrance was inspired by the ancient practice of recording the dates of the deaths of loved ones in a necrology, a public record or registry of death. This practice provides the living with an opportunity for healing and consolation in the face of grief. The Book of Remembrance is usually displayed from the solemnity of All Saints until the beginning of Advent. It is left open for people to write the names of their deceased loved ones and for others to read the names, remember, and pray for the repose of their souls. Our Book of Remembrance will be located at the entrance of the church on the pedestal.

St. Francis de Sales is hosting a women's retreat, Sunday, November 23. All women from St. Elizabeth's are invited to join them as they explore the vocation of women in the church. Guest speaker is Dr. Stella Marie Jeffrey. The retreat will be held from 11 – 3pm. Lunch is provided. Free of charge. A flyer and registration form are on the back table of the church. Call Carolyn at 701-866-5461.

Archdiocese for Military Services: The Archdiocese for Military Services special collection is taken every three years across the Diocese of Crookston. This special collection will be taken this morning. If you have already contributed before this date, please be assured that your offering will be directed to the Archdiocese for Military Services.

The Eucharist is the "Source and Summit" of our Catholic faith. It is the place where we encounter Christ most fully and where we are united with Him and with the entire Church. Since Fr Augie will be away from the parishes on sabbatical until November 30th, those who wish to take part in daily Mass are encouraged to do so at other parishes. The daily Mass schedule at St. Joseph's parish in Moorhead is 8:00am. At St. Andrew's, there will be services of the Word of God and Holy Communion on Tuesday and Thursday. There is daily Mass at St. Francis Xavier in Lake Park Tuesday and Friday at 9:00am.
