September 20, 2026 – Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"So when the first came they thought they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner.... 'My friend,' he said, 'I am doing you no wrong.... Are you envious because I am generous?'" Matthew 20:9-15

As God's servants, the gifts we receive from God are not a result of the work we do, but a result of God's generosity. Our stewardship should mirror the generosity of the estate owner. Stewards give without questioning what they will get in return.

Our Love and Prayers go out to...

We want to hold one another in prayer, especially those who struggle with illness and those who have asked for our prayers. "May you touch them and heal them, O Lord!"

VICTIM ASSISTANCE If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at (218) 281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

TWENTY FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 20, 2026

Today's Gospel Reading
 Perspective in life is extremely important: in our careers, our relationships and definitely in our faith as well. Too often, we see with a very limited point of view: our own. Naturally there is only one right way to do things, and we happen to know exactly what that is. Anyone who dares to offer a different viewpoint is quickly shot down. We know what's right, what's fair. Or do we? In the parable of the workers, Jesus challenges our basic assumptions of "fair play". In the story, all the workers receive the same wage, regardless of how long they have labored that day. Wait a minute, that's unfair, our little ethical monitors shout. Yet, from the Lord's perspective, everyone laboring in and for the kingdom is of equal value, regardless of when they arrived or when they began working. He sees the eternal view, not the ethical one. So it should be for us: we need to see every laborer as significant and important, knowing that God's gifts are free to all, and we must never despise His generosity.

Faith Formation
 Registration

ALL families should complete a registration form for the 2026-2027 calendar year; this is our way of ensuring that we have the most current, up-to-date information at our fingertips in case of an emergency rather than logging into a computer and accessing a data base. You may do this on the BAND app.

Thank you for choosing to make the faith formation of your children a priority!

Are you finding God's blessings in your life in short supply? Are you being called to teach the children and youth of our parish community? Take the challenge to respond to God's call! We are looking for parents to be leaders for small group sessions, leading your group in questions and discussion about what we talked about as a large group. Please let Kaylie Hanson know if you're available to help. Questions and discussion prompts will be provided. Thank you!
